FOREWORD

The present is the first volume of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature dealing with individual nomenclatorial problems to be published since the end of the war. The first Part was published in April 1951 and the last Part (Part 11), exclusive of the present index Part, was published in September of that year. The total period covered by the publication of these eleven Parts was therefore five months. Volume 1 (apart from the index Part—Part 12) was completed in March 1947, and the long interval before the commencement of publication of the present volume is due to the fact that it was decided in 1948 to give priority to the three volumes of the Bulletin (Volumes 3 to 5) devoted to the documents considered in Paris in that year by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature and the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology, and of the Official Records of the Proceedings of those bodies. Thus it is that, although the second of the series of volumes of the Bulletin, the present was, in fact, the fifth of those volumes to be started.

2. The present volume, which contains 474 pages (T.P.-xxvi, 1-448), comprises 135 papers, of which 62 are original applications submitted to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature and 73 are comments by specialists upon those applications and, in one case (Gryphaea Lamarck) upon an applicationa already published in another volume (Volume 3).

3. Of the 62 original applications, two deal with names belonging to two different Classes of the Animal Kingdom. For practical purposes, therefore, the present volume contains 64 applications submitted to the International Commission for decision. Similarly, four of the applications published in the present volume are joint applications by two or more joint authors. When account is taken of this fact, the number of applicants is found to amount to 84.

4. Of the 64 applications published in the present volume, two ask for Declarations from the International Commission on the meaning of individual provisions in the Règles, three relate to the status of names published in certain books, while fifty-nine are concerned with individual scientific names.

5. The 59 applications relating to individual names published in the present volume, when grouped by references to the Classes of the Animal Kingdom to which the genera or species concerned belong, are distributed as follows :—

Distribution of applications, by Classes of the Animal Kingdom

Name of Class	Number of applications
Rhizopoda	2
Nematoda	1
Crustacea	6
Insecta	19
Merostomata	1
Gastropoda	4
Pelecypoda	6
Cephalopoda	17
Brachiopoda	1
Reptilia	1
(indeterminate)	1
	59

6. When the 84 applicants are arranged by reference to the countries in which they are resident, applications are seen to have been received from residents of the following countries (arranged in alphabetical order) : -

Distribution of applicants, by country of residence

Country	Number of applicants
United States of America	33
Argentina	1
Great Britain	40
Denmark	1
Germany	1
Netherlands	6
Norway	1
Switzerland	1

7. The exceptionally large number of applications relating to the names of genera and species of the Class Cephalopoda is due to the receipt of a large number of such applications in relation to ammonites submitted by Dr. W. J. Arkell, the author of the relevant portion of the forthcoming international Treatise on Invertebrate Paleontology (General Editor : Professor Raymond C. Moore, University of Kansas) for the purpose of assuring a sound legal foundation for the names to be used in that important standard work.

8. Forty-nine (77 per cent.) of the applications published in this volume are applications by specialists for the use by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature of its plenary powers for the purpose of promoting stability and uniformity in nomenclature and of preventing the confusion which, in the opinion of the applicants, would result from the strict application of the ordinary provisions in the Règles in these cases.

9. The applications published in this volume contain proposals for the addition of 145 names to the Official List of Generic Names in Zoology, and of 277 names to the Official List of Specific Trivial Names in Zoology. In addition, 86 generic names are proposed for final burial by being placed on the Official Index of Rejected and Invalid Generic Names in Zoology and 21 trivial names for similar final disposal on the Official Index of Rejected and Invalid Specific Trivial Names in Zoology.

10. Of the 73 comments published in this volume, 5 relate to more than one application. When account is taken of this fact, the total number of comments on applications published is found to be 89. Of these, 4 are comments on proposed Declarations and one is a comment on a proposal relating to the status of a book. The remaining 84 comments relate to applications concerning individual names. All the applications to which these comments relate have been published in the present volume, except one (relating to the name Gryphaea Lamarck) which was submitted to the Commission during its Session held in Paris in 1948 and which was therefore published in volume 3 of the present work.

11. When the applications on which comments have been received, are grouped by reference to the genera and species concerned, it is found that the distribution of those comments is as follows :—

Distribution of comments on applications relating to particular names, by Classes of the Animal Kingdom

Name of Class	Number of comments
Rhizopoda	1
Nematoda	1
Crustacea	23
Insecta	31
Merostomata	2
Gastropoda	2
Pelecypoda	9
Cephalopoda	9
Brachiopoda	3
Reptilia	2
	84

12. The exceptionally large number of comments received in regard to applications relating to the names of Crustacea and Insecta are concerned mainly with two applications which aroused particular interest. The first of these was the application (Application Z.N.(S.)231) regarding the names Crangon Weber, 1795, and Crangen Fabricius, 1798; the second was the group of applications relating to generic names in the Order Diptera published by Meigen in 1800.

13. On many of the applications published in this volume comments were received too late for inclusion. These comments will be found in volume 6.

14. Of the 73 comments published in the present volume, three were submitted by two or more joint authors. Taking this into account, the total number of specialists who submitted comments is found to be 85.

15. When the 85 authors of comments published in this volume are grouped by reference to their country of residence, it is found that the distribution is as follows :—

Distribution of authors of comments by country of residence of the authors concerned

Country	Number of authors of comments
United States of America	29
Argentina	2
Australia	1
Great Britain	39
British West Indies	1
Canada	1
Denmark	2
France	4
Germany	4
	85

16. Under the procedural decisions taken by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature at Paris in 1948, the " Summaries " of Declarations or, as the case may be, of Opinions rendered by the International Commission on the applications published in the present volume will be published in the first available Part of the then current volume of the Bulletin, directly those Declarations or Opinions are adopted by the International Commission.

FRANCIS HEMMING,
Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature

Principles adopted in the selection of applications for immediate publication in the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature : Decisions taken by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature. Note by Francis Hemming, Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature 2

Personnel of the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature :

Death of Commissioner Paul Rode 4

Retirement of Commissioner Karl Jordan 4

Election of Commissioners 5

Report on the question whether, in order to avoid confusion in nomenclature, it is desirable that the plenary powers should be used by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature to vary the type species of the genus Pleurocera Rafinesque, 1818 (Class Gastropoda, Order Mesogastropoda). By Francis Hemming, C.M.G., C.B.E., Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature 6

Proposed validation of Aphidius Nees, 1818 (Class Insecta, Order Hymenoptera) under the plenary powers. By W. D. Hincks, Department of Zoology, University Museum, Manchester, England .. 18

On the proposed validation of Aphidius Nees, 1818 (Class Insecta, Order Hymenoptera) under the plenary powers. By E. O. Essig, Division of Entomology and Parasitology, University of California, Berkeley, California 20

On the question of the availability of the generic name Leptopsylla Rothschild and Jordan, 1911 (Class Insecta, Order Siphonaptera). By Karl Jordan, Ph.D., F.R.S., British Museum (Natural History), Zoological Museum, Tring 21

On the relative merits of the generic names Ctenopsyllus Kolenati, 1863, and Leptopsylla Jordan and Rothschild, 1911, as the generic name of the House-Mouse Flea (Class Insecta, Order Siphonaptera). By Francis Hemming, C.M.G., C.B.E., Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature 22

Proposed use of the plenary powers to suppress the trivial name ajax Linnaeus, 1758 (as published in the binominal combination Papilio ajax) commonly but incorrectly applied to the species named Papilio marcellus by Cramer in 1777 (Class Insecta, Order Lepidoptera). By the late A. Steven Corbet, British Museum (Natural History), London 26

On the proposal that the trivial name ajax Linnaeus, 1758 (as published in the binominal combination Papilio ajax) should be suppressed by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature under its plenary powers. By Francis Hemming, C.M.G., C.B.E., Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature .. 29

Proposed use of the plenary powers to designate Mytilus edulis Linnaeus, 1758, as the type species of the genus Mytilus Linnaeus, 1758 (Class Pelecypoda, Order Filibranchiata) (Proposed validation of an entry in the Official List made in Opinion 94). By Harold E. Vokes, Department of Geology, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, U.S.A. 31

Proposed use of the plenary powers to validate the generic name Scaphander Montfort, 1810 (Class Gastropoda, Order Tectibranchiata). By Henning Lemche, Universitetets Zoologiske Museum, Copenhagen, Denmark 35

Proposed suppression under the plenary powers of the generic name Monoculus Linnaeus, 1758. By H. Munro Fox, F.R.S., Bedford College, London University 37

Proposal that the generic name Rantus Dejean, 1833 (Class Insecta, Order Coleoptera) should be emended to Rhantus under Article 19 and that the type species of this genus should be determined under the procedure laid down for dealing with genera based upon misidentified type species. By J. Balfour-Browne, M.A., Department of Entomology, British Museum (Natural History), London 40

Proposed validation under the plenary powers of the names Acantholyda Costa, 1894 (Class Insecta, Order Hymenoptera) and Acanthocnema Becker, 1894 (Class Insecta, Order Diptera). By R. B. Benson, M.A., Department of Entomology, British Museum (Natural History), London 46

Proposed use of the plenary powers to validate the generic names Rhina Latreille, [1802-1803], and Magdalis Germar, 1817, for use respectively in the accustomed sense (Class Insecta, Order Coleoptera). By J. Chester Bradley, Department of Entomology, Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. 47

Proposed addition to the Official List of Generic Names in Zoology of the names of thirteen genera in the order Collembola (Class Insecta). By Hermann Gisin, Museum d'Histoire Naturelle, Genève 56

Page

Proposed use of the plenary powers to validate the generic name Cardinia (Class Lamellibranchiata) as from Agassiz, [1841], for use in its accustomed sense. By L. R. Cox, Sc.D., F.R.S., Department of Geology, British Museum (Natural History), London 59

Proposed determination under the plenary powers of the species to which the trivial name sirtalis Linnaeus, 1758 (as published in the binominal combination Coluber sirtalis) (Class Reptilia) is to be applied. By Karl P. Schmidt, Chief Curator of Zoology, Chicago Natural History Museum, Chicago, Illinois, U.S.A., and Roger Conant, Curator, Philadelphia Zoological Gardens, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, U.S.A. 67

Proposed use of the plenary powers to validate the generic name Crangon Fabricius, 1798, for the Common Shrimp and the generic name Alpheus Fabricius, 1798, for the Snapping Shrimps (Class Crustacea, Order Decapoda). By L. B. Holthuis, Rijksmuseum van Natuurlijke Historie, Leiden, The Netherlands 69

On the confusion which would arise from the acceptance of the generic names Crangon Weber, 1795, and Alpheus Weber, 1795 (Class Crustacea, Order Decapoda). By Poul Hecgaard, University of Copenhagen, Denmark 73

On Dr. Poul Hecgaard's proposal that the names Crangon Fabricius, 1798, and Alpheus Fabricius, 1798 (Class Crustacea, Order Decapoda) should be validated under the plenary powers. By the late Robert Gurney, Oxford 74

On Dr. L. B. Holthuis' proposals relating to the generic names Crangon Weber, 1795, and Crangon Fabricius, 1798. By Albert H. Banner, University of Hawaii, Honolulu 14, Territory of Hawaii 74

On Dr. L. B. Holthuis' proposals relating to the generic names Crangon Weber, 1795, and Crangon Fabricius, 1798. By Fenner A. Chace, Jr., Smithsonian Institution, U.S. National Museum, Washington, D.C., U.S.A. 75

On the proposed validation of the names Crangon and Alpheus as from Fabricius, 1798, by the suppression of the names Crangon Weber, 1795, and Alpheus Weber, 1795 (Class Crustacea, Order Decapoda) by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature. Supplementary note by L. B. Holthuis, Rijksmuseum van Natuurlijke Historie, Leiden, The Netherlands 79

Proposed use of the plenary powers to render the generic name Scyllarides Gill, 1898 (Class Crustacea, Order Decapoda) the oldest available name for the species currently referred thereto. By L. B. Holthuis, Rijksmuseum van Natuurlijke Historie, Leiden, The Netherlands .. 81

Proposed use of the plenary powers to render the generic name Lysiosquilla Dana, 1852 (Class Crustacea, Order Stomatopoda) the oldest available name for the species currently referred thereto. By L. B. Holthuis, Rijksmuseum van Natuurlijke Historie, Leiden, The Netherlands 83

On Dr. L. B. Holthuis' proposal that the plenary powers should be used to preserve the use of the generic name Lysiosquilla Dana, 1852 (Class Crustacea, Order Stomatopoda) in its accustomed sense. By the late Robert Gurney, Oxford 85

Proposed use of the plenary powers to validate the generic name Odontodactylus Bigelow, 1893 (Class Crustacea, Order Stomatopoda). By L. B. Holthuis, Rijksmuseum van Natuurlijke Historie, Leiden, The Netherlands 86

Proposed use of the plenary powers to suppress certain names published for fossil animals by Linnaeus in 1768 and by other authors in later editions of the works of Linnaeus. By the late R. Winckworth, London 88

Proposed use of the plenary powers to prevent the confusion which would result, under a strict application of the Règles, from the sinking of the name Conchidium as a synonym of Pentamerus Sowerby, 1813 (Class Brachiopoda) and the transfer of the latter name to the genus now known as Conchidium. By F. Elizabeth S. Alexander, M.A., Ph.D., Sedgwick Museum, Cambridge University, Cambridge 89

On the proposal that the plenary powers should be used to conserve the names Conchidium and Pentamerus for the fossil Brachiopod genera to which those names are customarily applied. By J. K. St. Joseph, M.A., Ph.D., Sedgwick Museum, Cambridge University, Cambridge 95

On Dr. F. Elizabeth Alexander's proposal for the use by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature of its plenary powers to validate current usage of the generic name Pentamerus Sowerby, 1813 (Class Brachiopoda). By Thomas W. Amsden, Department of Geology, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, U.S.A. 96

On Dr. F. Elizabeth Alexander's proposal for the use by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature of its plenary powers to validate current usage of the generic name Pentamerus Sowerby, 1813 (Class Brachiopoda). By G. Arthur Cooper, Curator, Invertebrate Paleontology and Paleobotany, Smithsonian Institution, U.S. National Museum, Washington, D.C., U.S.A. 96

Proposed validation under the plenary powers of the generic names Ligia Fabricius, 1798 (Class Crustacea, Order Isopoda) and Carcinus Leach, 1814 (Class Crustacea, Order Decapoda). By the late Alida M. Buitendijk and L. B. Holthuis, Rijksmuseum van Natuurlijke Historie, Leiden, The Netherlands 99

On the generic name Ligia as used by Weber, 1795, and by Fabricius in 1798 (Class Crustacea, Orders Decapoda and Isopoda respectively). By Poul Heegaard, University of Copenhagen, Denmark 102

Proposed use of the plenary powers to vary the type species of Capsus Fabricius, 1803 (Class Insecta, Order Hemiptera) in order to validate existing nomenclatorial practice. By W. E. China, Sc.D., Deputy Keeper, Department of Entomology, British Museum (Natural History), London 103

Request for views of specialists on the question whether the substitution, as required by the Règles, of the name quadratus Fabricius, 1787, for the name albicans Bosc, [1801-1802], as the trivial name of the Sand Crab (Class Crustacea, Order Decapoda) would give rise to confusion or instability. By Francis Hemming, C.M.G., C.B.E., Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature 105

Proposed use of the plenary powers to validate the terms Tettigonia and Acrida (Class Insecta, Order Orthoptera) as subgeneric names as from Linnaeus, 1758 (Application submitted in response to the invitation given in Opinion 124). By Ashley B. Gurney, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Agricultural Research Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., U.S.A. 106

On Dr. Ashley B. Gurney's proposal that the name Tettigonia should be validated as from Linnaeus, 1758, as of subgeneric status in the Order Orthoptera (Class Insecta), by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature under its plenary powers. By W. E. China, Esq., M.A., Sc.D., Deputy Keeper, Department of Entomology, British Museum (Natural History), London 109

On the proposed validation of the generic name Tettigonia Linnaeus, 1758, in the Order Orthoptera (Class Insecta). By R. G. Fennah, Imperial College of Tropical Agriculture, St. Augustine, Trinidad .. 110

On Dr. Ashley B. Gurney's proposal that the names Tettigonia and Acrida should be validated, as from Linnaeus, 1758, by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature under its plenary powers. By B. P. Uvarov, C.M.G., D.Sc., Anti-Locust Research Centre and British Museum (Natural History), London 111

First Report on matters left unsettled in Opinion 124, in relation to the status of the terms used by Linnaeus, 1758, to denote subdivisions of genera established in the 10th edition of the Systema Naturae : The subdivisions of the genus Gryllus Linnaeus, 1758 (Class Insecta, Order Orthoptera). By Francis Hemming, C.M.G., C.B.E., Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature 112

Proposed addition to the Official List of Generic Names in Zoology of the names of certain non-marine genera in the Phylum Mollusca. By A. E. Ellis, Epsom College, Surrey, England 119

Proposed addition to the Official List of Specific Trivial Names in Zoology of the names of certain non-marine species in the Phylum Mollusca. By A. E. Ellis, Epsom College, Surrey, England 125

Report on the procedure proposed by the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature to put an end to the confusion in the nomenclature of the Order Diptera (Class Insecta) resulting from the controversy regarding the generic names published by Meigen in 1800 in his Nouvelle Classification des Mouches à Deux Ailes ; first instalment of applications. By Francis Hemming, C.M.G., C.B.E., Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature 131

Application for the use of the plenary powers to validate the generic name Chlorops Meigen, 1803 (Class Insecta, Order Diptera). By C. W. Sabrosky, United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Washington, D.C. 134

On Dr. C. W. Sabrosky's proposal relating to the generic names Titania Meigen, 1800, and Chlorops Meigen, 1803 (Class Insecta, Order Diptera). By Francis Hemming, C.M.G., C.B.E., Secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature 138

On the proposed suppression under the plenary powers of the name Titania Meigen, 1800, in favour of the name Chlorops Meigen, 1803 (Class Insecta, Order Diptera). By H. Oldroyd, Department of Entomology, British Museum (Natural History), London 139

On the proposed suppression of Titania Meigen, 1800, and validation of Chlorops Meigen, 1803 (Class Insecta, Order Diptera) under the plenary powers. By John Smart, M.A., D.Sc., University of Cambridge, Department of Zoology, Cambridge 139

Proposed use of the plenary powers to validate the generic name Pipunculus Latreille, [1802-1803] (Class Insecta, Order Diptera). By William F. Rapp, Jr., Department of Biology, Doane College, Crete, Nebraska, U.S.A. 140

On the proposal that the name Dorilas Meigen, 1800, be suppressed under the plenary powers in favour of Pipunculus Latreille, [1802-1803] (Class Insecta, Order Diptera). By H. Oldroyd, Department of Entomology, British Museum (Natural History), London 141

Objection to the proposal that the name Dorilas Meigen, 1800, should be suppressed and Pipunculus Latreille, [1802-1803] (Class Insecta, Order Diptera) validated in its place. By Alan Stone, United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Washington, D.C. 142

Proposal that the name Dorilas Meigen, 1800, should be retained and the name Pipunculus Latreille, [1802-1803] (Class Insecta, Order Diptera) should be treated as a synonym. By D. Elmo Hardy, University of Hawaii, Agricultural Experiment Station, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii 144

Support for the proposal that the name Dorilas Meigen, 1800, should be retained and that the name Pipunculus Latreille, [1802-1803] (Class Insecta, Order Diptera) should be treated as a synonym. By Martin L. Aczél, Institute of Entomology, National University of Tucumán, Tucumán, Argentina 146

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRUST FOR ZOOLOGICAL NOMENCLATURE FOR THE YEAR 1949

(Report approved and adopted by the International Trust for Zoological Nomenclature in Annual General Meeting)

The year 1949 was one of great activity for the International Trust, for during it great progress was made in the preparations for the simultaneous publication of the three volumes of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature which in the previous year it had been decided to devote to the publication of the records of the discussions on zoological nomenclature which had taken place at the meetings of the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature and of the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology held concurrently at Paris in July 1948. The volumes in question were, it will be recalled : Volume 3, to be devoted to the publication of the documents relating to questions of zoological nomenclature that were considered by the Commission and the Congress in 1948 ; Volume 4, which was reserved for the publication of the Official Record of Proceedings of the International Commission during its Paris Session ; Volume 5, which was similarly reserved for the publication of the Official Record of Proceedings of the Section on Nomenclature of the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology, and of the Reports then submitted by the Commission to the Congress, responsibility for publishing which was accepted last year by the Trust at the request of the Secretary-General of the Congress.

2. Principal activities during the year : The printing of Volume 3 of the Bulletin was completed early during the year, but it was judged better to defer publication of this volume until the companion volumes containing the record of the decisions taken by the Commission and the Congress on the matters dealt with in Volume 3 were available, for it was felt that the publication of Volume 3 containing the proposals submitted to the Paris meetings might give rise to misunderstanding if it took place earlier than that of the volumes containing the record of the decisions reached on those proposals. Early in the year the first instalments of the draft of the Official Record of Proceedings of the Commission in Paris were received from the Secretary to the Commission and these were at once sent to the printers for proofs. Further instalments followed rapidly, the last portion being received towards the end of the summer. Concurrently with the above, instalments were received of the draft of the Official Record of Proceedings of the Section on Nomenclature of the Congress ; these were at once sent to the printer, and proofs of these also were received by the end of the summer. After these proofs had been checked by the Secretary to the Commission against the original records, the Trust, in accordance with the request addressed to it by the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology, obtained from the printer page-proofs printed on air mail paper for despatch to the persons whose approval of the drafts prepared by the Secretary was required before the texts could be settled as being definitive. In December 1949 these air mail proofs were despatched to all concerned with a request that they would signify their opinion as to the accuracy and completeness of the draft of the Official Records of Proceedings of the Commission and of the Section on Nomenclature within the time limit prescribed by the Paris Congress. This period is due to expire early in January 1950 and it may be hoped therefore that publication of all three volumes will take place early in the year 1950.

3. Publications : Although no parts of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature and no Opinions or Declarations were published during the year 1949, sales of back parts of previously issued publications (£149) remained at a gratifying level and were almost as high as in 1948 (when they amounted to £175).

4. Donations : As in the years 1947 and 1948 the main source from which the expenditure of the Trust was defrayed in the year 1949 was the grant received from U.N.E.S.C.O. This was in two parts ; the first and much the larger (£2,673) consisted of the unexpended balance of the grants for the years 1947 and 1948, for the use of which in 1949 permission had been received from U.N.E.S.C.O. The second contribution from U.N.E.S.C.O. consisted of a fresh grant amounting to £145. which was received during the course of the year 1949 through the intermediary of the International Union for Biological Sciences, the approved medium for the distribution of grants by U.N.E.S.C.O. for scientific projects in the biological field. During the year also a gift of £25 was received from the Royal Entomological Society of London.

5. Thanks for financial assistance received : The Committee of Management desire once again to place on record their high appreciation of the understanding and sympathy shown by U.N.E.S.C.O. in their consideration of the international needs of zoological nomenclature and are happy once more to have an opportunity of expressing their grateful thanks for the munificent subvention granted to the work of the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature. The Committee of Management desire also to thank the Royal Entomological Society of London for its continued support.

6. Total Income in 1949 : The total income of the Trust in 1949, as derived from the sources described above, amounted to £2,292. an increase of £1,294 over the Income (£1,689) received in the previous year.

7. Printing of three volumes of the "Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature": In the opening portion of the present Report particulars have been given of the progress made in 1949 in the preparation of Volumes 3, 4, and 5 of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature. The expenditure so involved amounted to £2,384 3s. 6d.

8. Administrative expenses: Administrative expenses during the year amounted to £429 14s. 1d. or £225 less than in 1948. This reduction was largely due to the fact that the post of whole-time salaried Assistant Director which was discontinued early in 1948 was not revived in 1949, and in consequence expenditure on salaries (£204) was £110 less than in 1948. In 1949 it was not necessary for the Trust to defray any expenditure on official travelling, whereas in 1948 it had been necessary to arrange for the establishment of a temporary Secretariat for the Commission in Paris during the Session of the Commission held in that city concurrently with the meeting of the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology. Great care has continued to be exercised in the control of office expenses which in the year under review amounted to £204 or only £8 more than in 1948, notwithstanding the considerable increase in business which in 1949 passed through the Offices both of the Commission and of the Trust.

9. Balance carried down: After taking account of a small item (£19 17s. 9d.) in respect of depreciation of Office Equipment, in addition to the items described above, there remained an excess of income over expenditure of £158 16s. 0d., which was carried down. When this was added to the sum of £669 16s. 4d. brought forward from 31st December 1948, the total balance at the end of 1949 is seen to have been £888 12s. 4d.

10. Balance Sheet: The Balance Sheet calls for little comment. No change took place during the year in the Office Equipment Reserve, while an expenditure of £127 18s. 4d. was made from the "Official List" Suspense Account. This latter expenditure almost offset the balance carried down (£158 16s. 0d.) this year and in consequence the Income and Expenditure Account Balance at the end of 1949 amounted to £1,348 10s. 4d. or only £30 more than at the end of 1948. No change occurred during the year in the provision made in respect of the cost of the revision of the Règles Internationales de la Nomenclature Zoologique, the responsibility for publication of which the Trust accepted last year at the request of the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology.

11. The general outlook: As will be seen from the foregoing particulars the financial position of the Trust has remained virtually unchanged during the year 1949. Nevertheless, the position is potentially better than the accounts now presented would at first sight suggest, for it may confidently be expected that when in 1950 the three volumes of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature on the printing of which such large sums have been expended both this year and in 1948, are published, the Trust will reap a substantial gain from the sales so secured. While from the strictly financial point of view, the position of the Trust and therefore of the Commission, may be considered satisfactory, the underlying dangers to which the Trust has had occasion to refer on a number of previous occasions remain as serious as ever. For the situation must continue to be essentially insecure for so long as the whole of the scientific work of the Commission, which already would give full employment to a highly paid scientific officer, continues to be performed free of charge by an honorary spare-time officer, the present Secretary to the Commission, assisted only by an honorary spare-time Personal Assistant (the wife of the present Secretary). Looked at from this point of view, the outlook could hardly be more uncertain, for, as the present Accounts show, with its present financial resources, the Trust would be quite unable to find the funds required to employ salaried officials to carry on the work of the Secretariat of the Commission. At the present time therefore the continuance of the work of the Commission is rendered possible only by the services freely given to the Commission by its honorary officers. The situation is thus highly precarious, since, if at any time these honorary officers ceased to be available, the work of the Commission would necessarily suffer an abrupt interruption. The Committee of Management propose to bring this matter before the International Union for Biological Services at the General Assembly of the Union to be held in Stockholm next year in the hope that it may be possible, with the help of the Union, to devise financial arrangements which will at least mitigate the worst of the dangers inherent in the present situation.

12. Presentation of Accounts for the year 1949 and Balance Sheet as at 31st December 1949 : With the foregoing explanations the Committee of Management has pleasure in presenting to the International Trust for Zoological Nomenclature for approval the Accounts for the Year 1949 and the Balance Sheet as at 31st December 1949. The Committee of Management desire to take this opportunity of recording their thanks to their landlords, the Royal Entomological Society of London, to their printers, Messrs. Metchim and Son Ltd., who have devoted great pains to secure the highest possible standard of accuracy and clarity of lay-out of the three important volumes of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature, the greater part of which was printed in the year under review, and also to Mrs. C. Rosner, their part-time Publications Officer, who has continued to show great diligence in the discharge of her duties and in her search for additional subscriptions for the publications issued by the Trust. Finally, the Committee of Management has pleasure once again in recording their thanks to the auditors of the Trust, Messrs. W. B. Keen and Co., Chartered Accountants, and in particular to Mr. R. W. M. Taylor, the representative of that firm who, as in previous years, has always shown himself anxious and willing to assist on all matters referred to him for advice.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRUST FOR ZOOLOGICAL NOMENCLATURE FOR THE YEAR 1950

(Report approved and adopted by the International Trust for Zoological Nomenclature in Annual General Meeting)

As forecast in the Report for the year 1949 a rich harvest was garnered in 1950 from the expenditure incurred in printing the three volumes (volumes 3, 4 and 5) of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature devoted to the Paris records on which so much work had been devoted and on which such large sums had been expended throughout the whole of 1949 and the latter part also of 1948. As will be seen from the present Report the substantial income obtained from the sale of these volumes almost offset the disappearance of the large grant from U.N.E.S.C.O. received in 1949.

2. Publications : During the year the whole of Volume 3 of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature (comprising the documents considered by the Commission and the Congress in Paris in 1948) and Volume 4 (comprising the Official Record of Proceedings of the International Commission at its Paris Session) were published ; Volume 3 was published in three Triple Parts at a total price of four guineas ; Volume 4 was published in eight Triple Parts at a total price of eleven pounds, twelve shillings. In addition, two Triple Parts (priced at one pound, eight shillings each) of Volume 5 were published during the year ; the portion published comprised the Official Record of Proceedings of the Section on Nomenclature of the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology, Paris, 1948, an extract from the Official Record of the Final Plenary Session of that Congress (when the recommendations of the Commission and the Section on Nomenclature were approved), together with two of the three Reports then submitted to the Congress. The total income from the sale of the Bulletin amounted to the gratifyingly large sum of £2,691 18s. 4d., of which by far the greater part was in respect of sales of the three volumes published during the year. No Opinions or Declarations were published during the year but the sale of back parts produced £40 16s., a significant testimony to the continuing interest in this series of publications. The total income from sales thus amounted to £2,732 14s. 4d.

3. Donations : The Committee of Management has to note, and expresses its grateful thanks for, the following donations received during the year : U.N.E.S.C.O. (through the International Union for Biological Sciences), £120 ; Royal Entomological Society of London, £25.

4. Total income : The total income of the Trust in 1950, made up of the foregoing items, amounted to £2,877 14s. 4d. or only £115 less than in the year 1949, when, in addition to a grant of £145 received through I.U.B.S., U.N.E.S.C.O. had made a direct grant of £2,673. While it was inevitably a source of great disappointment to the Committee of Management—as the Committee does not doubt that it will be also to the Trust—that U.N.E.S.C.O. should have abandoned the policy initiated in 1947 under which it made substantial grants to the Trust for the furtherence of the work of the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature, the Commission of Management is deeply conscious of the great value of the assistance rendered in this field by U.N.E.S.C.O. in the years 1947–1949. As explained in a later paragraph (paragraph 24) of the present Report, the Committee of Management are hopeful that, as the result of the good offices of the International Union for Biological Sciences, U.N.E.S.C.O. may yet render further assistance to the work of the Commission by making a grant to cover the period in which the Trust is endeavouring to provide itself with a permanent source of income.

5. Administrative expenses : During the year 1950 administrative expenses amounted to £546 0s. 11d., an increase of £117 over the expenditure so incurred in 1949. Salaries were at exactly the same level (£204) as in 1949 but office expenses have inevitably risen, partly as the result of a heavy increase in expenditure on postage consequent upon the use of airmail to a greatly increased extent for the purpose of speeding up the work of the Commission, but, mainly because of an increased consumption of paper and office requisites, coupled with the constantly rising cost of replacing stocks. In addition, the expenditure of a sum of £71 on travelling and subsistence was authorised by the Committee of Management in respect of the journey which at its request its Managing Director and Secretary made to Stockholm for the purpose of seeking Financial assistance for the Trust from the International Union of Biological Sciences at its General Assembly held in July 1950.

6. Depreciation of Office Equipment : The sum of £17 17s. 11d. was devoted to covering depreciation of Office Equipment.

7. Cost of Printing : Expenditure on printing during the year amounted to £394 12s. 3d., all in respect of the Bulletin of Zoological Nomenclature. Of this expenditure the greater part was in respect of the concluding Triple Part of Volume 4, while the remainder was in respect of printing the first instalment of Volume 2, the publication of which had, by a decision taken in 1948, been postponed until after the completion (or virtual completion) of the publication of the three Paris volumes of the Bulletin. It may here be noted as a satisfactory sign of the essential buoyancy of the demand for the publications of the Trust, that as against the total expenditure on printing volumes 3, 4 and 5 of the Bulletin in the years 1948–1950, the greater part was recovered in the form of sales within the twelve months following publication.

8. Balance carried down : The excess of income over expenditure during the year amounted, as the foregoing particulars show, to the sum of £1,919 3s. 3d. This was carried down. When to this is added the sum of £828 12s. 4d. (the balance brought forward from 31st December, 1949), the total balance is seen to have been £2,747 15s. 7d. From this however has to be deducted a sum of £200 which during the year was transferred to the " International Code (Publication) " Suspense Account. The net sum carried to the Balance Sheet was therefore £2,547 15s. 7d.

9. Provision for the preparation and publication of the revised edition of the " Règles Internationales de la Nomenclature Zoologique" : As explained above, a further sum of £200 was put on one side in 1950 towards meeting the cost of preparing and publishing the revised edition of the Règles Internationales de la Nomenclature Zoologique adopted by the Thirteenth International Congress of Zoology at Paris in 1948. The addition of this sum to the resources already earmarked for this purpose raises the total provision so made to £1,000.

10. Balance Sheet as at 31st December 1950 : The Balance Sheet shows that at 31st December 1950 the Income and Expenditure Account Balance amounted to £3,067 13s. 11d., an increase of £1,719 3s. 9d. over the level at which this balance stood at the end of 1949 (£1.348 10s. 2d.). From the financial point of view, the out-turn of the year 1950 is, in the opinion of the Committee of Management, extremely satisfactory, and it does not doubt that this view will be shared by the other members of the Trust.

11. Negotiations for securing a permanent source of income for the Trust : Reference has already been made to the decision by the Committee of Management to ask its Managing Director and Secretary to proceed to Stockholm in the summer of 1950 to act as the principal representative of the Trust at the General Assembly of the International Union for Biological Sciences. The Trust was entitled to a delegation of four Representatives. The Trust appointed a strong Delegation consisting of the Managing Director and Secretary to the Trust (who is also Secretary to the International Commission) as Chief Delegate, of two other members of the Commission (Mr. N. D. Riley of the British Museum (Natural History), London, and Professor Erich Martin Hering of the Zoological Museum, Berlin, and one other member of the Trust (Mrs. M. F. W. Hemming), all three of whom were in any case intending to be in Stockholm on the date in question and whose appointment as delegates involved no expenditure on the part of the Trust. The instructions given to the Delegation was that it was to do everything in its power to impress upon the International Union for Biological Sciences the extreme urgency and importance of securing an adequate and assured annual income, for the Trust, in order thereby to ensure the continuance of the international regulation of zoological nomenclature, that being a basic requirement for the development of zoological science. The Delegation was instructed to press these views upon both the Section for Zoology and the Section for Entomology and also to do everything possible to organise a basis of mutual support for the promotion of scientific nomenclature both with the Section on Botany of the Union and also, if possible, directly also with International Botanical Congress which was due also to meet in Stockholm at the same time. The Delegation was further instructed to urge upon the Union in General Assembly a twofold proposal for the promotion and development of the work of the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature Commission; under the first part of these instructions the Delegation was to urge the Union to take the initiative in appointing a Committee charged with the duty of devising a long-term plan for financing the work of the Commission on the basis of agreed annual contributions to be paid by institutions in different parts of the world concerned in one or another way with the development of work in the biological field; under the second part of its instructions the Delegation was to seek to secure from the General Assembly of the Union the adoption of a Resolution urging U.N.E.S.C.O. to make a substantial grant to cover the period in which the long-term financial plan was being worked out.

12. The discussions at the Stockholm General Assembly and the accompanying informal negotiations proved arduous and difficult in many ways. The Delegation was fortunate however in securing the sympathetic support of the entomologists and other zoologists present and they achieved a high degree of friendly co-operation with the botanists both inside the membership of the Union and also in the International Botanical Congress. At the last Plenary Session the Delegation, working closely with their botanical colleagues, obtained the unanimous adoption by the General Assembly of the Union of a Resolution stressing the great importance to zoology and botany respectively of the orderly development of international law in the field of scientific nomenclature, and urging U.N.E.S.C.O. to provide the grant required while the long-term plan advocated by the Trust was being devised. The Union approved also the proposal to appoint a high-level Committee to draw up the long-term plan and it is highly gratifying to the Committee of Management that Dr. Gavin de Beer, F.R.S., Director of the British Museum (Natural History) should have accepted the chairmanship of this important body.

13. The need for securing a firm financial basis for the work of the International Commission to which reference was made by the Committee of Management at the close of its Report for 1949 is extremely urgent. On the other hand, it is extremely difficult to obtain firm promises of financial support on the basis only of a programme of work, and efforts to obtain such support are much more likely to prove successful if the body making the appeal can point to a start having been made in the work projected, notwithstanding the handicaps imposed through lack of adequate funds. Already by 1950 the International Commission had recently secured important progress in the development of zoological nomenclature through the part which (as evidenced by Volume 4 of the Bulletin) it had played in securing the reform, clarification and development of the Règles Internationales de la Nomenclature Zoologique. But in other fields of its work—fields to which zoologists and palaeontologists confronted in their work with practical difficulties attach very great importance—the International Commission had for a number of years found it impossible (mainly through its preoccupation with matters relating to the reform of the Règles) to make any progress and it was in consequence faced with very heavy arrears. The sides of the work of the Commission concerned were (1) its judicial functions as the supreme interpreter of the Règles in relation to individual nomenclatorial problems and (2) the promotion of stability in nomenclature by the development of the Official Lists. It was accordingly decided that it was desirable that the Commission should furnish concrete evidence of its ability to deal with these important parts of its duties before any advance could usefully be made by the Committee presided over by Dr. de Beer. Immediately, therefore that the Paris volumes of the Bulletin were published (with the exception of the concluding portion of Volume 5, which it was judged could without harm be delayed for a time), steps were put in hand to start the publication of a new volume (Volume 2) of the Bulletin devoted entirely to applications for decisions on particular nomenclatorial problems and to proposals for the addition of names to the Official Lists. The Committee of Management hopes therefore that, when it comes to submit its Report for the year 1951, it will be able to report that the foregoing obstacle to advance has been overcome by the publication of the volumes of the Bulletin referred to above, and a further stage reached towards devising the long-term financial plan which it has so much at heart. The Committee of Management realises that the other members of the Trust fully share its views as to the cardinal importance of securing a settlement of this vital problem and it believes therefore that the Trust will be glad to receive the foregoing Report on the action initiated by its Committee of Management at Stockholm in the summer of 1950 and of the measures taken and projected for furthering the ends which it was the object of that action to secure.

14. Presentation of Accounts for the Year 1950 and Balance Sheet as at 31st December 1950 : With the foregoing explanations the Committee of Management has pleasure in presenting to the Trust the Accounts for the year 1950 and the Balance Sheet as at 31st December 1950. In doing so, the Committee of Management once again has the pleasant duty of recording its thanks to its Honorary Managing Director and Secretary (Mr. Francis Hemming) and to his Honorary Personal Assistant, his wife (Mrs. M. F. W. Hemming) for the services which they have rendered during the year, to Mrs. C. Rosner, the Publications Officer, and to the Auditors of the Trust, Messrs W. B. Keen & Co., Chartered Accountants, and their representative Mr. R. W. M. Taylor, for the constant assistance freely given during the year under review.
